

Texas Hambone Blues

Bb, F, F7, C7

Oh the blues ain't no - thin' oh the blues ain't no - thin' but a good man fee - lin' bad Oh the blues ain't no - thin' but a good man fee - lin' bad Those must - ve been the kind of blues I had

Oh yonder come, oh yonder come a train comin' down the track
Oh yonder come a train comin' down the track Gonna take me away but it's never gonna bring me back

I'm goin' back to Cowtown, goin' to Cowtown to get my hambone boiled Goin' down to Cowtown to get my hambone boiled
'Cause the New York women done let my hambone spoil

Oh when I die, oh when I die, honey don't you wear no black Oh when I die, honey don't you wear no black
'Cause if you do, my ghost'll come sneakin' back

Got a gal in Houston, got a gal in Houston, got a gal in San Antone
Got a gal in Houston, got a gal in San Antone
But my Dallas gal'll make a good man leave his home

Got a red-headed woman, got a red-headed woman, make a hound dog lose his trail
Got a red-headed woman make a hound dog lose his trail
Got a black-haired woman make a tadpole hug a whale